

FAQ's

What is Sports Fest?

Sports Fest is an interactive family experience, where children and parents can play, explore and learn just about everything sport related from experts, athletes and sports leaders.

What can I do at Sports Fest?

The day long festival includes: demos, inflatables for the kids, our star-studded Speaker Series presented by Planet Fitness, vendors, food, and (special for this year) a visit from the Easter Bunny and Easter Egg Hunts throughout the day on the outfield grass.

Can I purchase tickets on-site?

Yes, tickets may be purchased at the entrance located at the main gate or online at Eventbrite (<https://sportsfest2018.eventbrite.com>).

Is on-site parking available?

Yes, you can park in the state lots around 5th and Harrison Street.

Who will be speaking at the Planet Fitness Speaker Series?

TBD

TBD

Former Titans/Rams Head Coach Jeff Fisher

TBD

Are the guest speakers signing autographs at the speaker series?

We do not have them scheduled for any autograph sessions.

Can I take pictures with the Easter Bunny?

Yes. There will have a photo line for you and/or your child to visit and take pictures with the Easter Bunny beginning at TBD.

Do I have to sign a waiver in order to participate in activities?

Yes. You can download and print one here:

Or

There will be waiver tables set up nearby the interactive and throughout the field.

Where do I go to participate in the Easter Egg Hunt?

As you enter the park, proceed down to the 1st base side to the right field gate in section 119. There will be signage directing you as well as staff available to answer questions and hand out waiver forms for you to sign if needed.

What vendors will be there?

There will be over 70 vendors on site. Some of them can be found HERE

Will there be food and beverages available?

Yes, concessions will be open.

What can I bring in?

First Tennessee Park Game Day Policies will be in effect, no outside food or beverage, no animals, and no weapons.

You may bring in your child's Easter basket

If I exit the event will I be able to re-enter?

Yes, make sure your hand is stamped as you enter so that if you need to exit, you may re-enter.

Will there be any live broadcasts at Sports Fest?

Yes. We will broadcast live on-site starting at 7am and ending at 2pm. Here's the live broadcast schedule: Coming Soon